

LOOKING AT THE NEWS WITH COLONEL HUGH CLARK

A reactionary is one who refuses to become hysterical and fails wisely merely because things are not as he thinks they should be.

Believing into old misapprehensions a man has discovered that in 1924 if C had had the same monetary troubles that we have now. That, of course, is nonsense. The banker of that time did not call up a customer by telephone to say his house was due or his account overdrawn.

A committee on efficiency finds that there are four million people in the United States who can neither read nor write. It would be interesting to know what percentage of them is unemployed.

It looks as if the delegates of some countries represented at the conference were able to smuggle monkey wrenches into England.

What we want, says a clergyman at a recent political meeting, is not patience but righteous indignation. We should think that a good deal depends upon the right side and the state of the weather. On that hot day when he made the statement patience was indicated and not indignation.

Why should patience have to go without a complimentary adjective while indignation is ever right about it? It is easy to give to indignation, whereas it often requires self control to command patience. Patience had its victories not less renowned than indignation, and quite as much as right conduct.

All that Mr. Woolworth seeks for the C P R is to be the balance of power. And balance is often the very thing that power lacks.

Those who want to make things out worse than they really are, are now added to the list of unemployed teachers and pupils who are on vacation.

President Roosevelt now asserts that world recovery can best be gained by each nation being about its own domestic recovery. Some time or other he has said the very opposite, as other sagacious men have, viz. that the best condition has been brought about by each nation trying to live within itself, forgetting that it is but a part of one stupendous whole. The entire body is ailing because the circulation of the blood has been obstructed by each member, the blood in this state of world commerce. Now he thinks the disease can be cured by the same thing that caused it. We fear that this new discovery of his is due to the difficulty he is experiencing in directing U S procedure at London by proxy and long distance.

NIGHTINGALE

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. H. of Est-while George and Marie were receiving acquaintances and visiting the old home place last week.

The married men and single fellows are each striving for supremacy in football these days. Tennis is another popular sport and the young folk are enjoying all sorts for weather with outdoor sports.

It was decided to write to the hall committee regarding some improvements on the hall. The ladies are taking a real interest in the W I and will be glad at any time to have visitors or prospective members.

Mrs. Thurston, Mrs. Coops and Mrs. Leonard Hilton have organized a Sunday School and judging by the attendance they are going to have a real live school.

PRODUCTION RECORD

Piston: P. J. Pickwick, mature pure bred Holstein cow, owned by Fred Hubbs of Bloomfield, Prince Edward County, has given 102 lbs milk, 102 lbs butter and 102 pounds on successive days, with twice a day milking. This is a record for milk production in this county for the highest production heretofore on official records has been 101 pounds, with three times a day milking. This cow has also averaged 102 pounds a day for seven days. She is entered in a 205 day C P R test, and will no doubt be a part of one stupendous whole. The entire body is ailing because the circulation of the blood has been obstructed by each member, the blood in this state of world commerce. Now he thinks the disease can be cured by the same thing that caused it. We fear that this new discovery of his is

STOP DOLE METHOD URGES HENRY FORD

Detroit: The shortest cut to the restoration of economic balance, Henry Ford said in an interview recently is the elimination of the dole system, and one of the quickest ways for the United States to eliminate the dole, he added, is to get rid of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

Recovery, Mr. Ford said, can come only up through the people, not down through financial or political agencies. We must put work everywhere—not the kind of work that pays a dole, but a wage with a margin.

Mr. Ford said he was working on a plan that in effect would mean sending work and wages direct to the people. I am working out a plan, he said, whereby every Ford dealer will have a part in Ford manufacture. There is no reason why every one of our 9,000 dealerships should not sell and service cars. We could make it possible for them to hire men to work on small parts.

This would be sending work and wages direct to the people of every community. Regarding the payment of war debts Mr. Ford said neither collection nor cancellation was of any consequence, so far as the plain people of the nation are concerned. The people of the world are not their debtor nations will get any real benefit either way, he said, in 1933.

BERT HUFFMAN SUCCEEDS THE LATE COUNCILLOR CHAMBERLAIN

TO elect a Councillor to fill out the unexpired term of the late Councillor H. E. Chamberlain in Division No. 5 of Bow Valley Municipality, a spirited and enthusiastic election was held in that Division on July 15.

Nominations for the vacant seat in the council had been received by Returning Officer Harold Hanson at Chamberlain's home on July 8, William A. Laycraft and Bert Huffman being the two only candidates.

Two polling places were opened at 9 a.m. July 15: one at Chamberlain's home and the other at the residence of W. E. Laycraft. Mr. Hanson as Deputy Returning Officer.

The friends of both Laycraft and Huffman entered into a spirited contest for the respective candidates and at the close of the polls at 5 p.m. a very large vote had been polled.

The results of the election were as follows:

Chamberlain Poll—Laycraft 8; Huffman 21; Total Poll—Laycraft 9; Huffman 21; Total—Laycraft 17; Huffman 25.

There was one spoiled ballot for Huffman at Chamberlain Poll.

Division No. 5 comprises a rectangular six miles north and south by nine miles east and west, the eastern boundary being the road that runs north from the south by Mr. Wolf's farm a mile west of Strathmore.

The normal vote of the Division is about 75, so the grand total of 102 brought out at this election shows that there is a keen interest in municipal affairs in the Division. The late Mr. Chamberlain had been Councillor for that Division for ten years in succession. Mr. Huffman's campaign term will expire in the early spring of 1935.

Grasshopper Situation

The grasshopper situation has developed rather seriously in certain parts of Southern Alberta, and the Provincial Department of Agriculture is intensifying its poisoning campaign in these areas.

The campaign is being directed by the Provincial Department of Agriculture in cooperation with the Federal Government and the University of Alberta. Poison-mixing stations are now in operation. The most serious outbreak is in the district north and northwest of Lethbridge, and it is also fairly serious in the district extending eastward and northward toward Calgary.

Householders, with scattered outbreaks in the region north of the C P R main line. It is estimated that some million and a half acres in the areas in the extreme south are seriously menaced. Good results are being obtained from the poisoning campaign, but the amount of poisoned bait material has had to be considerably increased from first estimates. The daily output of bait has now reached over 6,000 tons, and the total quantities of material used to date, in what has proved to be one of the heaviest grasshopper campaigns in the history of the Province, has been as follows: 2,600,000 lbs. of bran, 2,000,000 lbs. of sawdust, 15,000 lbs. of arsenic, 16,000 gallons of molasses.

The wife wrote from a fashionable hotel: Dear Dear, I enclose the hotel bill.

Ernie replied: My dear, I enclose cheque to cover the bill, but please don't buy any more hotel at this figure. They are cheating you.

Moos, what would you do if you received a letter from the Ku Klux Klan? A young negro was asked.

Well, when I'd read it on a train, I'd read it.

So you use three pairs of glasses Professor.

Yes, one pair for long sight, one pair for short sight, and the third to look for the other two.

MR AND MRS D. W. GARDINER
SADLY BEREAVED

TO, not only with his playmates but also with his friends of whom there were many.

The people of Strathmore will unite in extending their most sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Gardiner in their sudden and irreparable loss.

The funeral was held in Calgary by Father Doyle in St. Mary's Cathedral on Tuesday morning, after which the interment took place in the St. Mary's Cemetery in Calgary.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Gardiner were shocked on Sunday morning to learn of the passing of their only child, little Bobby at the Holy Cross Hospital on Saturday.

He had been taken ill and removed to the Hospital a week before suffering from a serious attack of appendicitis. From that day as he manfully put up a strenuous fight, hopes had been entertained that possibly he might pull through. Bobby was a bright little chap who had reached the age of six years and was a general favorite.

Baseball fans are anticipating a real game on Sunday when the Strathmore team meet the Strathmore Rebels at 5 p.m. Ab Crellin has his rabbit foot all beautifully polished, his wife lubricated and intends to show those serious about Dirty Dean has nothing on him when it comes to real pitching.

JACKSON'S ERRORS

COSTLY TO GIANTS

:O:~

NEW YORK

They thought

George John Ryan was a professional, when he joined the

New York Giants on January 23, and secretary Jim Tierney almost knew him out.

Ryan made the mistake of coming over from his home at Lynn,

Mass., and shipping out his signed contract under Tierney's name, evidently announced. Nobody knew him.

But now everybody knows

Rhodie Ryan, the fielding fool and the Giants front office and

New York fans regard him as a baseball Moses whose scheduled return to the lineup at St. Louis is expected to lead the Giants out of their disastrous slump.

That the National league leaders humanitarians should appear to rest upon a rookie shortstop, who has a few bottom batting averages of his emphasizes the capriciousness of baseball. But such seems to be the case.

Since Ryan received a 16 stitch splitting gash in the right leg on July

2 from Joe Medwick of the Cardinals the Giants won only one game and lost seven straight.

The once great Travis Jackson, who lost Ryan's season, but supplanted himself, proved a weak replacement for Rhodie at short and the slight inflexion blew up completely no longer supporting the excellent coloring.

Nineteen errors in the last seven games resulted in seven defeats.

FOUR JOHNSONS IN

SPOTLIGHT IN AMERICAN

LEAGUE RACE

If any more Johnsons attain prominence in the American league the junior major circuit might as well change its name to the Johnson league. The title will be a very apt one.

Founded by the late Dan Johnson the American league today of four John Johnsons who occupy the spot page spotlight.

They are:

Walter Johnson, new manager of the Cleveland Indians.

Henry Johnson, pitcher of the Boston Red Sox.

Roy Johnson, outfielder of the Boston Red Sox.

Bob Johnson, Roy's kid brother, outfielder of the Philadelphia Atlettes.

And one might add to a list of American league Johnsons—Willis

Johnson, secretary of the St. Louis

Browns.

Walter, greatest of Johnsons, made his comeback into baseball

this season when he supplanted

Roger Peckinpaugh as manager of the Indians.

Since he took over the reins of the Yoke, the baseball world has been watching Johnson's progress.

He has a two year contract.

In this season of tight hitting averages, Robert and Roy are possessing very acceptable figures and Henry is vindicating the judgement of the Red Sox chiefs for giving Danny McFadden to the Yankees for his services.

In the recent rise in the Yankees to a commanding position

Robert, the youngest of the Johnsons has been one of the most potent factors. He is one rookie who has produced for Connie Mack. It is right up among the leaders in runs batted in.

Big Brother Roy has been crucial for several seasons. He was with Detroit from 1929 to the middle of the 1932 campaign. He has been chiefly noted for his most powerful, if not the most accurate arm in baseball. No other major league can approach him throwing for distance. While his average isn't up to his little brother's, he is one of the features of the pitching records this season.

His record is one of the best-ones in the American league.

The Red Sox acquired Roy and Henry about the same time. Last season, Roy went to the Red Sox from Detroit along with Hale Abraham in exchange for Earl Webb and cash. Henry was swapped with Roy Paul Andrews for McFadden.

.350. He has been hitting .300 for 50 straight games.

Way back in 1915 Jack Noss,

Oakland first baseman, ran his comsecutive games hitting streak to 49, and for 18 years such stars as

Paul Warner, Earl Averill, Tony

Lazzeri and other swatters have Lecturer: Of course, you and know, what the inside of a curtain is like?

Chairman of Meeting (interrupting): Most of us do, but, for the benefit of those who have never been inside of one, you might explain it.

:O:~

You are reading a travel book.

Preparing for a holiday?

No, I'm on holiday now. I sit here and dream of travel.

But you are reading the book.

backwards.

:O:~

Yes, I'm on the return journey.

:O:~

Teacher: Here you see the skull of a chimpanzee, a very approximate specimen. There are only two in the country—one in the national museum and I have the other one.

:O:~

It's queer the way a horse eats.

Isn't it?

What do you mean?

He eats best without a bit in his mouth.

:O:~

Sandy bought two tickets for a rattle and won a $100 car.

His friends rushed up to his house to congratulate him, but found him looking miserable.

He could be.

:O:~

Why, man, what's the matter with you? they asked.

It's your second ticket. Why I never bought it I can't imagine.

News Notes

Gasoline sold in 14 hours during 1932, according to figures compiled by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, amounted to 967,226 barrels. Nearly 100,000 more barrels were consumed in the Province of Ontario.

The recent Census of Canada reveals that of the population of Canada fifty-two per cent are of British origin. Twenty-eight per cent are French origin; seventeen per cent are of all other European races; and about four-fifths of the rest are Asiatic.

The Saskatchewan Department of Natural Resources will liberate about 2,000 nine-week-old fish for sale in the province of Saskatchewan during the coming summer. The fish are being held in captivity at Moose Jaw prior to liberation.

Despite a somewhat later season this year, crop conditions throughout the Prairie Provinces provide cause for optimism in the opinion of J. M. McKie, general agricultural agent, Canada Pacific Railway. He based his view on improved moisture conditions in the West, and the fact that at some points was the best since 1925.

Completing a seasonably successful visit to Canada and the United States, the Oxford Group, recently arrived at the Empire of Australia for the last time, under the leadership of Rev. H. Allen Viney, their Canadian visit terminated with a house party at the Chateau Frontenac at which 500 members were present.

The death of Vancouver recently of J. W. Peters, former general superintendent, British Columbia district, Canadian Pacific Railway, was announced during his last remaining days on his continent with the pleasurable realization of the early service. His record was extended to nearly 32 years. He was born in Saint John, March 25, 1856.

Grant Hall, senior vice-president, Canadian Pacific Railway, back from three-weeks' inspection tour, took time to the Pacific Coast, stated that he had seen and heard much of an enormous amount of work during his trip and nothing of a contrary nature. He added that there was distinct relief of hope and reason of confidence.

Farm improvement through the application of business principles, practical and theoretical knowledge and ordinary sense and common sense is a necessity of this day of lowered prices. F. H. Hester, manager Canada Collocation Association, told the Winnipeg Kiwanis at the Royal Alexandra Hotel, recently.

The Association has branches in all cities in Saskatchewan, where it has been in existence with 1344 farms of a total of 467,699 acres under supervision. More than 200 scientists from 21 countries attended the first meeting of the Pacific Science Congress opened at the Empress Hotel, Victoria, June 1 and continuing at the Vancouver Hotel, Vancouver, until June 14. It was the first time the Congress has met on the American side of the Pacific Ocean.

Lord Kitchener addressed the Congress from his home in England, his speech being carried by radio close on 6,000 miles to Vancouver.

I understand that you called on the complainant. Is that so? demanded a brooding lawyer of man he was cross-examining.

Yes, replied the witness.
What did he say?
A conversation for the other side, he said.

Conversational was not admissible, and half an hour's argument ensued. Then the Magistrate tried to consider the point, assuming on their return some time later that they deemed the question a proper one.

Well, what did the plaintiff say repeated the cross-examining barrister.

He wasn't at home, sir, was the answer.

A man from Toronto was peering into the depths of the Grand Canyon.

Do you know, asked the guide, that it took millions of years for this great gorge to be carved out.

The man from Toronto was tremendously impressed. You don't tell me, he commented. Why, didn't know it was a Gort job.

ROCKYFORD

Mr. and Mrs. Valrod and family have returned from a special trip through the mountains to visit relatives at Kelowna, having the few customary delays enroute they report a wonderful vacation.

Mr. C. W. Tait and his two daughters Mrs. Tait and Mrs. Kennedy with their families are spending their vacation at Gull Lake. Miss Tait, Mrs. Tait and Mrs. Kennedy are looking after the municipal office during their absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Harwood and family are spending a week at Sylva Lake. Mr. and Mrs. Constable of Rosedale were also seen passing through Rockyford on Monday morning for Pine Lake.

Harvey, Stanley and Miss May Hirt are spending the week at Pine Lake.

De Hennam Schaper of Tabor passed away on Friday July 14th, at his 67th year. He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, Nellie and a sister, besides many other relatives. Funeral services were held at the home of Mr. Harry Best, 425 Schapera's brother on Saturday afternoon with Rev. M. M. Gilbert of Glenora officiating. Mr. Schaper's funeral home of Calgary were in charge of arrangements. De Schaper has been a resident for many years, but during the portion of that time which he has spent in this district he has gained a large circle of friends and admirers, as the large crowd of mourners would indicate also the many tributes. Mr. Harry Best accompanied his sister to Neneah, Wis., with the remains where burial will be made.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Hunter were in town for a few hours on Monday enroute to Medicine Hat where they will spend a few days before returning to Neneah, Wis. where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. F. Ryan. All these folks are old Rockyford residents.

The town and country were at most deserted last week as nearly everyone was away for their holidays or to the Calgary Stampade. Sunday evening was a very quiet night here as every one who could events lined up and it is beginning to look like a big day. Glenora and Rockyford are meeting in a baseball game, while the intermediates of Standard will also compete against the home team of that size. A soft ball tournament will be held between the teams from Meadowsbrook, Rosedale, Tricoma and Tricoma. Races and midway attractions will make a full afternoon. At 7:30 in the evening there will be a Boxing Bout, and later the hall will be cleared for the evening dance. McLean's orchestra will supply the music and the Catholic Women's League the entertainment.
